At Catherine Hammerton we are delighted to shout about British-ness and ethically sound production policies.

We are proud to tell our customers that all our wallpapers and home accessories are 100% designed and made in the UK.

Our bespoke wallpapers are hand made from FSC certified paper from managed forests in Europe. All trimmings are taken from the mill and recycled into egg boxes.

Our ready to wear wallpapers are digitally printed in the UK using the latest drop-on-demand technology – this creates less waste during the manufacturing process, making it better for the environment.

Our papers are also wrapped in bio-films, so the packaging composts in 40 days or less. Love our paper and we'll love the planet for you!

Our textiles are printed in the UK and sewn in conjunction with a nationally recognized sewing project, which supports people with mental health issues to develop vocational skills. They do a fantastic job and we love working with them.

Our gorgeous NEW range of ceramics are hand made by Tony – a master potter with over 30 years worth of experience. Every single item is created and finished by hand with great love and care, so you can enjoy the best cuppa in town.
